AID FOR MIGRANTS

BIG PLANS

Two big moves have been made in Altona to help migrants fit more easily and quickly into the community.

● Altona North high school advisory council has asked the Federal Government for $75,000 for provision of a migrant community education centre at the school.

● The Altona librarian, Miss C. Paltridge, has begun moves for a Government grant for migrant reading and cultural material and setting up of a general information services for migrants.

The moves were outlined this week by Cr. W. L. J. Crofts, Altona council's migrant assimilation portfolio holder.

And Cr. Crofts added both had the full support of the council.

Cr. Crofts was commenting on a recent naturalisation ceremony in Altona, at which 63 migrants became Australian citizens.

"This speaks well for the way they have settled into our community, with great credit to themselves," he said.

He added it indicated also an appreciation of the work of the Federal Government and the council in assisting migrants assimilate themselves into a new country.

Many people within the Altona community were conscious of the needs of newcomers.

Miss Paltridge had shown great initiative in preparing a report which included approaches to the Immigration Minister, Mr. Al Grassby, for a special Federal grant, Cr. Crofts said.

This was aimed not only at providing reading material suitable for assisting assimilation, but cultural material and setting-up of a general information service.

This service would be aimed not only at helping migrants understand their new land but helping Australians understand and appreciate the cultures migrants brought with them to Australia.

The council would be pressing for both Federal and State Government aid toward implementing the proposal.

Cr. Crofts said that in addition, the council was right behind Altona North high school advisory council in its moves for a migrant community education centre.

The council had approached the Premier, Mr. Hamer and the Commonwealth Government seeking $75,000 the school council had asked for.

INFLATION PUSHES RATES UP 7%

Increased inflation has forced a rate rise in Altona.

The new rate of 13.2 cents in the dollar on the net annual value of land in the municipality represents a jump of 7.3 per cent.

There have also been massive increases in sanitary service charges.

The charge for this service has sky rocketed from $31.50 in the previous municipal year to $41 this year.

Despite both increases, town clerk, Mr. Syd Fell, said council had budgeted for a "break-even" estimate of its costs and income.

Mr. Fell said council had allowed for an anticipated 10 per cent escalation in costs and had been forced to prune certain activities without giving ratepayers any great increased burden.

In giving notice of motion of the increased rate and sanitary charge at Tuesday's council meeting, Cr. Les Crofts said council had great difficulty in coping with inflationary problems because, even though the Government had increased many of its subsidies, these would in no way meet the additional costs to council.

One of the most glaring examples of this, he said, was that council's library service would cost council $12,000 to run this year in spite of an increased subsidy.

Cr. Crofts said, "I feel our council is budgeting well on a sound basis, thanks mainly to the efficiency of the town clerk and engineer."

He pointed out there would be extra expenditure on health and welfare, council properties, maintenance and elderly citizens facilities — to name just a few.

Cr. Crofts also said there would be definite steps taken during the year to establish at least the first stage of a swimming pool complex at Altona.

Cr. P. Lynch pointed out that the new rate of 13.2 cents was still below the rate of 13.5 cents six years ago.

"I can't think of anything else that has dropped in price during that time", he said.

Cr. H. Weaver commented that the estimates for the year and the striking of a slightly increased rate, without delaying progress, represented a theme of "stop inflation and save the nation".

Mr. Fell said yesterday that the slight increase would make no noticeable difference to the continuing progress of Altona and no works would be curtailed because of present inflationary costs.

Two fatalities in two days at the same intersection has baffled Melbourne's mobile traffic police.

Police yesterday described the traffic-light controlled crossing at the intersection of Millers and Kororoit Creek roads, Altona, as extremely safe, open and well-lit and one at which accidents just should not happen.

The first fatality occurred at 4.35 a.m. Thursday when two cars, both travelling on Kororoit Creek Road, collided at the intersection.

Killed was Thomas McEwan, 55, of McColl Street, Reservoir.

The driver of the other vehicle, Barry Downie of Blackly Street, Deer Park was admitted to hospital with severe injuries.

Miss Therese Marie Twomey, 46, of Yarra Street, Newport was killed when her car collided with a truck at 6.45 p.m. on Friday.

A pet labrador owned by the dead woman, was also killed.

The driver of the truck sustained slight injuries.

From winds and isobars to pirouettes

The joy of dancing can be seen in Ann Griffiths' graceful leap as she practices in the park.

Predicting the weather forecast, performing folk dances and sewing an exotic Greek costume is all in a day's work for attractive Anne Griffiths, of Maidstone Street, Altona.

Anne, 22, a member of the Kolobok dance company of Australia, is a meteorologist.

Anne's voice can be heard over 3AW twice a day. She juggles her shift hours to fit in two or three exhausting rehearsals a week.

Starting with the dance company more than three years ago, Anne has been studying ballet for seven years.

She said the company performs dances from many lands, including Russia, Poland and Rumania, but they are all basically the same, although each has a particular style.

When the Star photographer, called, Anne was busy sewing an ornate Greek costume for Kolobok's next production.

It will stage international dances and music at the Union Theatre, University of Melbourne, on the following dates:

Thursday, October 25 at 8 p.m., Friday, October 26 at 8 p.m., Saturday, October 27 at 2.15 p.m., and at 8 p.m.

Tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for children, students and pensioners. For further information, interested people could ring Mrs. E. Segal, phone 50 3529.

Val's Column

Hello Girls,

So many of us, having got through the under-cover, not much sunshine season, now find our hair in a most drab state. Instead of your usual routine, add a color shampoo to your shopping list. One application will last you through four-five shampoos. While using any hair colorant girls you can make these colors last longer in your hair by shampooing with a shampoo specially formulated for "tinted and bleached hair." — Or a shampoo for auburn, copper, brown — or ash (for white or blondes) these will help your particular shade sparkle for longer.

Another way to brighten your hair is to add a wash to wash temporary color, either passed over after the final rinse, or sprinkled on in the form of a colored setting lotion.

Add lemon juice to the final rinse for blondes or vinegar for redheads — but beware, these are drying!

Then for a more permanent change there are many products and many ways to go about them.

I really feel if you are interested in these, come in to our hair care section and we will discuss the best way for you to achieve the color you would like to become.

Tell the family we have a large range of sunglasses in stock now. You can choose from V.V.I.'s, Sunoroid, Polaroid, Venus and a host of others.

Sun preparations are needed now, too. Be prepared, you could be vain and starting your season off with an artificial color — easily applied.

Your family are out in the sun a lot. Have they freckled skin; fair complexions or an olive coloring — you need just the right preparation for them. There is a special lotion for baby to save the nastiness of a sunburnt skin.

We would all like to help you with any of these products. Yes, there are so many. But one is best for you.

Altona has entered a record five teams in this season's VJCA competition.

Saturday's stars: 1st XI — Paul Jenkins (67), David Duggan (63), 2nd XI — Roy Evans (63), 4th XI — Peter Mildenhall (39), 5th XI — Tom Meyers (57) and Geoff Taylor (7/21).

1ST XI

Altona is in a solid position to win its first VJCA A Division points, playing Newport.

Captain — coach David Duggan won the toss and elected to bat.

Bruce Forrester and David Duggan opened the innings and with the score at 9: Hitchcock was out when he played a full toss on to his stumps.

David Duggan joined Forrester and this pair quickly overpowered the bowling taking the score to 37 before Forrester was out lbw.

Paul Jenkins joined Duggan and with excellent batting the score was quickly taken to 107 for the loss of three wickets.

Duggan was caught after a well compiled 63 including 10 fours.

Wayne Patton came to the crease and another big partnership was put on the board. This time it was Jenkins in full command, scoring 67 and taking the score to 180 before he was out caught.

Michael Oram joined Patton and batting under instructions Oram was dismissed in trying to push the run rate.

Colin Shaw took over Oram's role and he and Patton added 35 in quick time, before Patton was out caught for 36.

Ken Duff came in to bat and with 30 minutes of play left he and Shaw took the score to 6/263.

Shaw finished on 33 n.o. and Duff 22 n.o.

Given the right conditions Altona has the bowling attack to gain the points next week.

BISHOP DEFENDS WESTERN YOUTH

An Anglican bishop has defended the reputation of the young people living in the Western Suburbs.

Bishop Grant told an Anglican Synod meeting that if people believed the stories they heard and read, they would think the youth of the area were a collection of bashers and delinquents of all sorts.

He said the people who lived and worked in the area knew this was far from the case.

Bishop Grant is the Bishop for the Western Region of the Melbourne Diocese, covering the area from Essendon to Geelong.

He was speaking at the synod in support of a motion welcoming the State Government's proposal to allow greater use of school premises for community purposes.

Bishop Grant said the proposal would help remove the anomaly of poverty in the midst of plenty as far as community facilities were concerned.

The motion was carried unanimously.

6 HOURS TO VISIT

Western General Hospital has decided to increase its visiting hours from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m., — six hours.

The hours apply to both midwifery and general wards.

In the midwifery wards a few minor restrictions apply. One is that visitors must leave when babies are being fed, usually between 5 p.m. and 6 p.m.

There will be no change in viewing time for babies.

In the general wards visitors should contact ward sisters in charge in relation to patients undergoing surgery, and they should leave the wards when treatment is being carried out or the doctors are making their rounds.

A press release from the hospital reminds visitors that short visits are better for patients.

Fire fighting demo for students

The Altona Petrochemical Company will put on fire fighting demonstrations for Altona school children on Tuesday, 23rd October.

The demonstrations will be a safety consciousness mark fire prevention week which extends from October 22.

A morning demonstration will be given for 40 students of the Altona North Technical School and a similar number from Altona North High School will see a demonstration in the afternoon.

Mr. Stan Noble the company's training co-ordinator explained that the demonstrations were designed to promote fire among the young.

Demonstrations will be preceded by a 40 minute lecture on different aspects of fire fighting.

New posts

Passers-by in Grieve Parade may have noticed the recent arrival of two sets of goal posts at Altona High School. The school is indebted to a teacher, Mr. C. Paine, who obtained the posts from the Railways Department at Newport at a cost of $10.

I Say
by Adelia Bernard

In last week's "I Say" column, I started a two-part series on the Western Region Commission. Here is the second — final instalment.

The Western Region Commission was started to define the areas of immediate need for assistance in the western region of Melbourne.

These are:

- Social welfare.
- Education.
- Quality of urban life.

The WRC comprises 10 local government councils — Altona, Bulla, Bacchus Marsh, Essendon, Footscray, Keilor, Melton, Sunshine, Werribee and Williamstown.

The chairman of the commission is Cr. Don Myers (Werribee), with Cr. Bryan Bailey (Keilor) as vice-chairman. The secretary-treasurer, Mr. Bill Williams (Sunshine) resigned recently, but is still acting temporarily until the matter of drawing up a constitution is finalised.

The WRC covers an area of 800 square miles with a population of 500,000.

The question of establishing needs, defining priorities, allotting proportionate funds and constituting bodies authorised to handle funds is not an easy one, nor one that can be achieved in a few weeks.

Mr. Fran Crean, the Federal Treasurer in announcing an initial grant of $3 million, said that the specific programmes will be worked out with the appropriate State and local Government authorities.

WRC has so far drawn on the knowledge of existing organisations and individuals by setting up committees of local Government and citizen groups — I can't say that all the information has been gathered yet, less still has been utilised in programming. This is to be expected. According to the old saying: "Rome was not built in one day".

At the moment an atmosphere of excitement and pressure is noted on all levels. The stated political interest is not helping nor is the talk of amalgamation of municipalities opposed to federation of municipalities.

On the one hand we are told that money is available now (and we certainly could do with some) but, on the other hand, we gather that unless agreements are finalised on the Federal and State levels, the money will not be so readily available.

I feel that real concern for the welfare of the people should be paramount and more benefits could be reaped by any one Government, Federal or State if this matter became the number one priority.

On the grapevine, the talk of amalgamation of municipalities opposed to federation is also creating anxiety and concern, and it is certainly fermenting a certain quantity of suspicion.

More particularly, Williamstown people would hate to see their city, with its grand old tradition, embedded in the beginning of the history of Victoria, lose her unique individuality created by a the very geography of the city.

Nor would they like to lose the quiet "country town" environment to which they are accustomed.

That our standards of education, social welfare, medicare could be improved is a fact. But it is also a fact that we could do a lot towards that improvement if we could use all our land and the revenue thereof.

I would very much doubt that both State and Federal governments could deny that statistics exist now which must justify grants for areas of unratable land.

Not only are we deprived of revenue, but it is that very same land which, by its neglect of maintenance and beautification, is the marring blot which puts Williamstown on the maps of the deprived west.

Nurse weds

Jillian Anderson is used to wearing white, but she looked very special in her long flowing gown and long hair blowing in the breeze at Williamstown Beach on the arm of her debonair new husband (pictured left).

Miss Jillian Margaret Anderson, a nursing sister at Williamstown Hospital, married Francis Clayton Joel at the Holy Trinity Church in Nelson Place, Williamstown.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lex Anderson, of The Strand, Williamstown.

She was attended by Miss Pam Granger and Miss Jan Dennehey.

Francis is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F.A.C. Joel, of Albert Street, Williamstown.

Best man was Mr. Doug Shields and groomsmen Mr. Les Joel the groom's brother.

A reception was held at the Hotel Australia.

Picture by Barry M. Sutton, Williamstown.

Poor lighting a danger to aged

Mrs. McNamara, a Williamstown resident has written to the Advertiser protesting on behalf of other Williamstown residents on the poor lighting in Electra Street.

Her letter reads:

"I am writing on behalf of a number of people to try and bring to the notice of other Williamstown residents, through your newspaper, the extremely poor lighting of Electra Street, though most people would be familiar with this area.

As this is a very wide street and there are large numbers of trees on either side, a lot of the Williamstown people feel that just a few lights on one side, which are partially hidden by the trees, are not sufficient to light such a street.

As the Williamstown Medical Centre is situated in Electra Street it is also thought after discussion with a number of the elderly citizens of Williamstown and others, that the lighting is very poor for those who have to walk to the medical centre when it is open in the evening.

This lack of sufficient lighting also constitutes a danger to the children who are out after dark, though I know they should not be out alone.

Most mothers watch their children but there are those who let their youngsters go back and forth to the milk bar at night.

For these and other reasons we hope this problem can be brought to the notice of the Williamstown City Council or whoever is in charge of such matters, in the hope that something can be done about it.

We would appreciate if this matter could be brought to the notice of the appropriate authorities as soon as possible.

REJECTED

An application to hire Williamstown Town Hall at concessional rates by Williamstown Football Club was rejected at the last council meeting.

The club wanted to hold its cup eve ball, the proceeds of which was going to improve the ground facilities.

The application was rejected on the grounds that only charities are entitled to a reduction.

Past pupils meet

Past pupils of Nott Street State School, Port Melbourne, are asked to attend a meeting at the school on Monday, October 15 at 7.30 p.m., to discuss arrangements for centenary celebrations.

Gem fans will meet

The Western Suburbs Lapidary Club will meet in the Footscray Trugo Club at 8 p.m. tomorrow, Thursday.

The club is on the corner of Buckley and Werner streets, middle Footscray.

The meeting will be followed by a demonstration of polyster castings by Mr. Ron Hall.

Visitors are welcome.

A MAN FOUND by Williamstown police asleep in the Williamstown Free Kindergarten, in Ferguson Street, has been charged with being unlawfully on the premises and causing wilful damage. Police allege the man, an Albert Park pensioner, broke a window to get into the kindergarten. He was found there about 11.30 p.m. last Tuesday.

WILLIAMSTOWN Baseball and Cricket Club has lost its six-gallon hot water urn, worth $60. The urn was stolen from the back of a member's station sedan while it was parked in the carport at his Parramatta Street, Williamstown, home between 11 a.m. and noon last Wednesday. Police believe the back door of the vehicle was locked to the first catch only and was jarred open.

HOUSEBREAKERS got away with a transistor radio and a watch from a table beside a bed where a Williamstown man was sleeping. The transistor was worth $20 and the watch, $40. Victim of the breaking was Mr. Edward Aitken, clerk, of Leed Street, Williamstown. The thieves broke a glass front door panel and opened the lock.

AN AIR RIFLE slug is believed to have been the missile with which the window of a house in Melbourne Road, Williamstown, was broken about 7.45 p.m. last Sunday. The damage is estimated at $10. Loser is Mr. David Jones, who occupies the house.

A CYCLE belonging to a Williamstown Technical School student was stolen from the school's bike shed between 8.45 a.m. and 12.15 p.m. last Friday. The student is Nevris Dardovski, of Princess Street, Williamstown. The cycle is a 'Dragstar' 20 in. machine, with a blue frame and chrome wheels.

THREE CASSETTE tapes found in Aitken Street, Williamstown, have been handed in at Williamstown police station. They were found last Saturday and handed in to police by Miss Karen Morton of Aitken Street, about 4 p.m.

GUIDE LEADER 'KNOCKS' FAKE DOORKNOCKER

The District Commissioner of Guides and Brownies in Williamstown, Mrs. Joan Nikoliev has issued a warning to local residents on doorknockers.

This follows reports that a young girl, claiming to be a Brownie, doorknocked in Williamstown on Saturday.

A letter from Mrs. Nikoliev on the subject reads as follows: "It has been brought to my attention that on Saturday morning, October 6, a dark-haired girl of nice appearance of approximately nine or 10 years of age knocked on some front doors in Osborne Street, Williamstown, collecting money, she stated for the local Brownies.

Could you please publish a warning to the members of the general public that the Brownies and Guides do not EVER have door knocks.

The only fund-raising appeal we ever have is our annual "Cents for Service" conducted in April of each year and then all participating wear uniforms and submit an official card which must be signed by the householder.

HBA CONTRIBUTORS

please note
increased medical & hospital benefits
as from 1st September, 1973, increased contributions
as from 1st October, 1973.

MEDICAL BENEFITS

The Federal Minister for Social Security has directed that health funds pay increased benefits for consultations and home visits by general practitioners, specialists and consultant physicians for service rendered on and after 1st September, 1973. The new benefits range from $3.20 for a G.P. consultation (up 40 cents) to $22.30 for a consultant physician home visit (up $2.30).

The Commonwealth is not increasing its share of the benefit. Because there are no reserves in the medical fund to absorb these increased benefits HBA has found it necessary to increase contributions for medical benefits by 16 cents per week for a single person and 32 cents per week for a family, to be paid from 1st October, 1973.

HOSPITAL BENEFITS

From 1st September, 1973, public hospital fees increased as follows: Public Ward from $15 per day to $20 per day. Intermediate Ward from $23 to $30 per day. Private Ward from $30 to $40 minimum.

HBA met the cost of the additional benefits during September, estimated at $1,100,000, from hospital fund reserves. As from 1st October, 1973, weekly contributions for hospital benefits will also be increased.

THESE ARE THE NEW CONTRIBUTIONS AS FROM 1 OCTOBER 1973:

POWER AND THUNDER

Gold Star power and thunder will return to Phillip Island on Sunday, October 14, with nine of Australia's fastest racing cars competing in heat three of the 1973 Gold Star series.

The last time a Gold Star event was held at Phillip Island was in 1959.

Drivers who know the track are predicting the track record will be cut by 3 sec., as the five-litre cars with up to 550 hp reach 180 mph on the fast circuit.

Driving five-litre cars in the 1600 kilometre (100 miles) race will be the winner of the first Gold Star heat and this year's

New Zealand Grand Prix,

John McCormack (Ansett

Elfin) reigning Gold Star

champion, Frank Matich

(Matich Repco) Kevin Bar-

tlett (Lola Chev.) Garrie

Cooper (Ansett Elfin) Max

Stewart (Lola Chev.) John

Walker (Lola Repco) Stan

Keen (Elfin Ford) and John Leffler (Elfin Repco).

Leffler, a new face on the Formula One scene

and this year's Formula

Ford champion, is driving

the car in which Max

Stewart contested the

Gold Star and Tasman

series last year.

The ninth big car will be a second Matich from the Johnnie Walker team,

the driver was not named

at publication time.

The third heat will be used as a test session as well as a race because the Formula One cars return to the track in November for the fifth and final heat of the Australian Gold Star series.

Also using the race as a test session will be Allan Moffat and Peter Brock in their Bathurst 1000 production sedans.

The Falcon and Torana

will be testing tyres, suspension, engines and gear ratios for the 500K on November 25, when the Bathurst cars meet again for 500 kilometres of endurance racing.

The race they will be contesting on Sunday, Oc-

ttober 14, is the 50K Sports

Sedan Plate. Entries include Leo Geoghegan and

Tom Naughton in Por-schies and Michael Stillwell in an Escort.

While the never-ending battle between the Moffat Falcon and

Brock Torana will be the highlight for sedan

fans, enthusiasts will watch with interest the race between sophisticated sports sedans

and highly developed production touring cars.

Practice for bike classic

Craig Brown, the young New Zealander who almost won the first Castrol Six-Hour motorcycle race, has already ridden a six-hour high-speed practice for this year's event at Amaroo Park.

Brown and riding partner Brian Martin sped their four-cylinder Honda 750 402 miles around the tight 1.2-mile circuit in the six hour time limit.

"Pit stops", said Martin, "are the key to race success."

They covered 335 laps — one more than last year's winning distance.

"Neither of us has ever finished a Castrol Six Hour, although we've ridden in all three," Martin said.

"We wanted to discover how our bikes would react in the closing stages of the race on near bald tyres and what fuel load it would require," he said.

Martin and Brown have devised a special fuel filler which will enable them to dump four gallons of petrol into their tank in less than eight seconds.

Brown and Martin intend to run the race at lap speeds of 62.5 sec. (69.6 mph) — 2.7 sec. outside the production lap record.

The Honda returned a little over 21 mpg in the practice run, but Martin and Brown are hoping for 25 mpg in the race.

More than 60 teams will compete for $10,000 prize money in the Castrol Six Hour at Amaroo Park on October 14.

Royal Tour direct telecasts

Much of the Royal visit by the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh, culminating with the opening of the Sydney Opera House, will be seen on television. Details of direct telecasts of their arrival and official functions are published this Thursday in "The Age" TV/Radio Guide.

Free, with "The Age", this handy 12-page lift-out guide conveniently lists all the week's radio and television programmes.

Feature highlights include an absorbing two-part documentary re-enacting Major Gordon Bennett's escape from Singapore... the Australian Record Awards... and three variety specials starring Petula Clark, Glenn Campbell and Des O'Connor.

"The Age" Guide also tells of Jimmy Hannon's departure from radio, and details the Castrol 6-hour motorcycle race. There are reviews of TV films and records including a collection of double-albums featuring Melanie, Rolf Harris, Billie Holliday, Tex Morton and The Mims and The Dads.

Odd, but true

Motor races, like cricket matches, attract statisticians and the "inquest" on the recent 1000 kilometre race at Bathurst has revealed one odd fact.

It appears two half cars took part.

Nobody recalls having seen these semi-vehicles going round the track but the break-down of the number of starters on various makes of tyres reads: Bridgestone 30½, Goodyear 7½, Dunlop 20 and Michelin 3.

Apparently one driver thought it would be a good year for Bridgestone.

It was, too. The Rubber Derby results reveal that in class D Bridgestone scored second, third, fourth and fifth, first and third in class C and third in class A.

And the driver with two halves? Well, he made it conveniently possible for Bridgestone to tyre exactly half of an entry of 61 cars.

TWO OUT INJURED

Australian champion Ron Toombs and Isle of Man winner Tony Jeffries have both scratched from the Castrol Six Hour motorcycle classic after serious accidents.

However, they will be replaced by two internationals — Pan-Pacific championship winner Cliff Carr and Norton works rider Mick Grant.

Toombs was eliminated last weekend when he broke his leg in a fall from his Yamaha 350 at Wanneroo Park in Western Australia.

Jeffries, 26, broke three vertebrae in his back at Calwell Park, England. Jeffries' Castrol partner, veteran Percy Tait, confirmed Grant would replace him for the big race at Amaroo Park on October 14.

Grant is fast becoming the superstar of English racing.

He has been victorious at three meetings in a row at Calwell Park, Mallory Park and Scarborough.

TWO RECORDS SMASHED IN LITTLE ATHLETICS

Two records were smashed at the opening meeting of the Williamstown Little Athletics Association.

John Martyn won the boys' Under 12 100h with a time of 16.5 and Michelle Lowden, the girls' Under 11 100h in 17.2.

Once again, the big problem in staging the meeting was the lack of adults prepared to help run the events and anyone who would like to help should contact Rod Silk, 391 2443 for further information.

• Blakeney "Kid" Matthews lands a hard right to the head of South Australian Roger Bowyer, who has not fought since.

He's aiming his fists at 2 titles

By LAURIE SCHWAB

Sensational Melbourne featherweight Blakeney "Kid" Matthews this week took a major step in his campaign to become Australia's first world champion since Johnny Famechon and Lionel Rose.

Matthews' manager NORM SALTER revealed he had issued an official challenge to Commonwealth champion BOBBY DUNNE.

The challenge, addressed to Dunne's manager Noel Scully of West Melbourne, was released exclusively to this paper today.

We also announce exclusively that Sydney promoter Ed Silva, acting for Matthews, is currently negotiating a world junior lightweight title fight for Matthews.

If it comes off, his opponent will be the winner of the bout in Honolulu this month between current champion Kuniaki Shibata and Ben Villafra.

"Even if these negotiations fail, there is no doubt in the world that we will get a crack at the world crown next year," Salter told me this week.

Matthews, who was born in South Africa, but has settled here, has had 49 professional fights for 39 wins, two draws and eight defeats.

His only loss in his past 22 bouts was against Commonwealth junior lightweight champion Toro George, but according to most fight experts, Matthews won that one by a mile.

Matthews is the fourth-ranked featherweight in the world and the eighth-ranked junior lightweight.

During his sensational career, he has beaten men like Alan Presnall, Bob Alotti, Anthony Morody and Billy-Moeller, the Australian junior lightweight champion.

He also beat No. 1 featherweight challenger Mick Haefey and South Australian Roger Bowyer into retirement.

Norm Salter's challenge to Bobby Dunne reads in part:

"I should like to publicly challenge Bobby Dunne to defend his Commonwealth Featherweight title against Blakeney 'Kid' Matthews.

"It seems highly unlikely that the many times proposed match between Toro George and Bobby Dunne will ever take place, therefore the only featherweight in Australia today with the class to be a challenger for this is... Blakeney 'Kid' Matthews.

"We concede choice of venue and referee to Dunne in an effort to ensure you that this is a genuine challenge and we do not wish to claim any advantage whatsoever."

If you haven't seen Blakeney Matthews on Melbourne's fight forum TV Ringside, it's because Stadiums Ltd. has a black ban on Norm Salter.

As Salter tells it, the ban resulted from a disagreement he had with Stadiums over Welsh Boxer Dick Duffy.

Salter said that although Duffy decided to remain in Australia permanently, Stadiums still wanted 9/10 per cent. cut for its overseas agent, to which Salter would not agree.

When Matthews fought Toro George at Festival Hall in a bout arranged by Bill Long, Salter was barred from the corner.

So now Matthews fights only for Channel Nine in Sydney and at various stadiums throughout Australia. He's had a fight at the Pier Hotel in Frankston as well.

His next bout is against a world-rated Japanese in Sydney on October 11.
